OUR METHODOLOGY

The first step in handicapping a game is to make a line. I use my exclusive home and away team ratings to get a base number. Depending on the sport, I alter that number due to various factors: rest, travel, injuries, matchups etc. At that point I determine if there is enough of an edge to bet that game. All our bets are between 1-5 units with each unit = to 1% of your bankroll. Example if your BR is $1,000 you should be risking $10 on a 1 unit bet.
